ABOUT THE SOCIETY

Bromley Art Society was formed in 1947 to bring together local painters and sculptors, art teachers and students, and all who share an appreciation of the fine arts. It is the largest of its kind in the Borough of Bromley.

Most of its members are amateur artists working in a wide variety of media: oils, watercolours, acrylics, pastels, gouaches, pen and ink, prints and batik, clay and mosaics.

Each year the Society stages major public exhibitions in the Bromley area. It also stages a series of Open Air one day exhibitions during the Summer. They provide an excellent opportunity to display original works of art and to find buyers. Exhibitors pay a small entrance and hanging fee plus a percentage of their sales to the Society.

An essential element of the Society's programme is a series of illustrated lectures by experts on art and artists and practical demonstrations of various media techniques. These monthly meetings are held in the Verrall Hall, United Reform Church, Widmore Road, Bromley at 8pm on the first Friday of each month. There is free local parking next to the fire station in South Street.

Weekly painting sessions take place on Wednesdays at Ripley Arts Centre, 24 Sundridge Avenue, Bromley.

Every three months members receive 'The EASEL', the news and views of the Society's activities with reviews of events and art exhibitions, together with articles and letters submitted by the members.

The Society is affiliated to the Bromley Arts Council.
